How to Find the Right Co-tenant for Your Property

Weeding out candidates and finding the (near) perfect co-tenant is not an impossible feat. It's all just a matter of asking the right questions. Let's begin.

Questions to ask yourself during your impromptu interviews

Are both of you already acquainted?

Did they make a good first impression?

Questions to ask your candidates before choosing "The One"

What are their sleeping habits?

Are they keen on having visitors?

Do they tend to study a lot?

Do they smoke?

What gets their motor running?

Are they willing to provide references?

Great, you've chosen a co-tenant! Here are some general survival tips...

Research them on social media

Tell them what to bring

Cut all bills in half

Sign a daily chores pact

Pick your fights wisely

Stop by for a chit-chat

We hope that we've managed to help you at least a bit in the search of the perfect co-tenant. Wish you a happy living :)
