Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Fernando Rodríguez is specialist in the design and development of communication strategies across media. He is recognized as one of the best graphic designers and as a pioneer in the new media field in the Dominican Republic. In 1999 Fernando founded Canoa Interactiva, where he and his associates developed extraordinary projects for the top companies in the country. In the next few years Fernando worked independently developing corporate identity projects and expanding his knowledge in the design and new media fields. In 2011 he realizes his dream of creating a unique company, Mente Elástica, working alongside a group of talented and innovative professionals, to manifest his visión of the importance and potentiality of the new technologies for the development of successful and groundbreaking communication strategies.
