Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Evelina is an image-maker, who has lived and worked in New York, London, Paris, Madrid, Hong Kong, and Shanghai, in pursuit of broadening her perceptual horizons and gathering inspiration sources.

Born and raised in Bulgaria, she started painting at a pre-school age. Her current work is driven by an obsessive fascination with light, motion, perceptions of reality, and the female form.

Evelina is an emerging photographer and In her photography work, she aims to capture and provoke emotions, and inspire curiosity. She specializes in conceptualizing and creating still images of fashion and luxury products for commercial and editorial use. She currently operates as a photographer for hire mainly from a studio in Shanghai, and works closely with clients to produce images to match required specifications.
