Awards and Accolades

I bought one of Fergal's landscapes for my best friend's wedding present. The image of a boat at Murlough Bay in County Antrim caught my eye right away and I just thought it was so beautiful and tranquil - and my friend thought exactly the same thing. It now has pride of place above her mantlepiece in her new house. I would also comment on the really fast turnaround - just three days from choosing my image to the fully assembled and beautifully framed picture arrived!
