Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Frederick has been in the photography industry for over 35 years. Initially working as a photojournalist, he moved on to computer graphics. As this field grew, he began experimenting with incorporating photography into computer-rendered environments.

For 15 years, he owned and operated a photography glamour and boudoir studio called “Editions by Frederick”. His wife, Oleanna is an internationally celebrated glamour nude model from Ukraine. Since the studio had a strict privacy policy regarding the use of client images in that none would appear anywhere without written permission, Oleanna modeled many of the looks that were created in order to be able to post the images in their portfolio.

By the time Editions by Frederick was winding down, Frederick and Oleanna had compiled a huge body of work of fantastic photo art which were modeled by Oleanna. They decided that these images could be incorporated into various products that could be brought to the market.

Their first project was “The Sensual Goddess Tarot Deck” and all of the images were shot specifically for this project. They opened up Sensual Goddess Publishing Corp and launched the tarot deck. This product proved so popular that they began to create other products such as playing cards, books, and photo art prints.

Sensual Goddess Publishing continues to expand and now they are launching an exciting new project called “RawArt”. This is a not-for-profit publication that will showcase the talents of photographers and models from around the world.
