Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
I'm a freelance Graphic Designer, Artist and Web Designer living in the southern tip of the L.A. Area. I'm addicted to Japanese RPGS, Sentai, watch way to much Anime and love Urban Vinyl toys.

In 2007 I created Atomic Boogaloo as a brand for my illustrations, intending to produce origional apperal and comics. Currently Atomic Boogaloo has branched out to perform Graphic Design services to small business, T-shirt Designs, Glicee Art Prints, Comic Books and E-commerce.

I'm always availible for work. The bulk of my freelance work has been developing web pages for clients, html and wordpress. But I also provide affordable Graphic Design services and do custom illustration in Adobe Illustrator.

Please, feel free to check out my illustrations and websites listed under this bio. I'm always happy to awnser any questions and always welcome new friends or colleagues via facebook and linkedin.
