Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Graeme Cooper is a classically trained photographer and lecturer with over twenty years' experience. His commissions have taken him to Milan, Lisbon, Florida, New York, Geneva and beyond, and have included both commercial and art photography. His clients include Christian Dior, La Redoute, Jaeger, Ilford and American Express and he also works extensively in the public sector with clients such as The Manchester Museum, The Whitworth Art Gallery, Imperial War Museum North, Friends of the Earth and Salford City Council. Graeme was photographic consultant and photographer to CUBE in Manchester between 1999 and 2004 and has also worked with individual artists such as Dinu Li, Ian Rawlinson and Graham Parker. Graeme has won numerous awards during his career, most recently the 2011 SUN Awards, for which he won first and third prize for Best Use of Photography.
