Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Dan launched his career in New York in advertising and public relations, where he worked with some of the country's top brands. Dan also has many years' experience in small-business and corporate marketing, finance, franchise business operations and field consulting. In 2005, Dan became the first area president of TruePresence, a national internet marketing firm specializing in web design and search engine marketing. Dan's clients have included Johnson & Johnson, Sears, Warner-Lambert, Monsanto and Pepsi, but prefers the individuality of his smaller business clients. Dan launched The Green Internet Group to help business owners fully leverage the digital marketing and social media by offering results driven marketing planning, consulting, training and creative services.
