Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Elfen is a multi award winning design and branding company based in Cardiff Bay. Formed in 1997 the company has built a reputation for creating captivating images, powerful messages and successful graphic communications that deliver impressive results for a wide variety of clients. I manage a design team of five, and they are multi-disciplined, flexible and able to adapt to the different needs of projects without compromising on creativity. We have over fifteen years experience of creating successful design and branding projects. Clients include S4C, BBC, Wales Arts International, National Library of Wales and National Theatre Wales to name a few. We have a deep understanding of the cultural landscape of Wales in a national and international context. We have the skillset to deliver all visual aspects of a brand identity, and have the experience to deliver results across digital and print.
