Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Halena Pill is a well-experienced medical billing and practice management consultant with a contribution of more than 18 years for US doctors. She has remained steadfast in her vision of promoting your practice to enable it to offer the best care to its' patients with no influence of free incomes. Ms. Pill practices only medical billing services, and she specializes in the workers compensation billing and personal injury cases. This guarantees that you will recover your costs promptly and in full from all your patients for the services that you have offered them. Let Ms. Pill wade through the back office issues so that you don't have to struggle with them; just give your best as a care provider.
