Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Hello, I am Hazel. I started my career as a recruitment consultant where I worked with large corporations within banking & finance, insurance, telecommunications, professional services like Wazifa to make your husband love you and clinical R&D to recruit specialist and management staff. I uses this extensive knowledge and experience with Resume Right to build client applications that are specifically aligned to employer requirements and provides coaching & guidance on how to leverage the best outcome for your job applications.
