Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Lisa wanted to be an illustrator since she was seven years old, when she would copy her favorite artists magazine illustrations. Art lessons started at eight followed by the High School of Art & Design and Fashion Institute of Technology, graduating with a degree in fashion illustration. With over twenty five years experience as an illustrator, she can be found drawing in her studio everyday, working on projects and playing with new ideas. Her work is stylized, graphic and highly designed with a fun sense of movement. Lisa has worked in a variety of areas creating illustrations for corporate firms, toy companies, book publishers, magazines, advertising, packaging and products. After many adventures living in New Orleans, Denver, Miami, Malibu, and Mill Valley, (the life of a freelancer!) Lisa settled in Rhinebeck, NY with her husband, son and the cutest Corgi in the world. But...she still misses Miami every winter!
