Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Hi!

My name is Julie Ann Stricklin. I am an illustrator, graphic designer as well as fine artist based out of San Diego.

I am a full time independent creative resource for companies, start-ups, publishers and small indie project managers who need access to a creative department but do not have the need for a full time staff.

Since my client base range is vast, I have an eclectic style and media range.

I work as a remote "creative on demand" based out of my studio.

I am interested in hearing about any project that needs creative assistance. I negotiate all projects up front.

Check out my CV with links, published books, client list and more.

If you have any questions, please send me a note!
