Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Ian Spanier was born in Connecticut, raised in Westchester, New York. Spanier's interest in photography began at age six when his parents gave him his first camera. As comfortable in the studio as he is on the edge of a cliff, Ian can face any challenge presented. Spanier has even entered a shark cage in South Africa, to have a face to face with the Great White, his now late one and only fear.
Currently he resides in Los Angeles, and, is available for assignment in New York, California, and any other location accessible by plane, train, car, horse, camel, or mule- pretty much anything that has legs, wheels, or wings is fair game.
