Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Online Portfolio: http://www.jamespaul.org

James Paul has years of solid experience in graphic design, art direction and illustration for both web and print. He has worked as both art and creative director in advertising, journalism and new media in New York City, San Francisco and Denver. He is an expert at Adobe Creative Suite programs such as Illustrator, Photoshop and InDesign, and has created dynamic two dimensional character animations in Flash. James' latest experience has been as an on-site freelance Art Director at Integer Group, working on such brands as Miller and Coors beer, as well as Kraft foods. He also created the web site, branding, signage, menu for the all - new Hawt Dog and Sausage Eatery (www.hawtdogeatery.com) in Cherry Creek North. He has worked for such agencies as J Walter Thompson, Schematic Interactive and Vanguard Direct, and has taught web design at New York University. In his free time, James continues to write, record and perform independent music.

Says James: "My diverse background and life experience have made me a strong team leader and a great problem solver. I have always had a wild and vivid imagination, and technology has enabled me to bring me to bring my ideas to life. By constantly learning and expanding my repertoire, I ensure that my clients never have to worry about the techie details. I pride myself in making collaboration fun and easy for everyone I work with."
