Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
I'm a freelance digital artist living in the USA.

I specialize in photo illustration and creative retouching for the advertising, marketing and publishing industries.

As an artist, I believe the drive to create has been embedded into my DNA – it's the essence that breathes passion and life into the work I create. Being an artist isn't merely my profession – it's my life's purpose.

My objective with every assignment is to create captivating and compelling artwork which inspire people.
