Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
JML Productions, Inc. is expanding and is now equiped to meet more of your production needs. Jaime Levey, the founder of JML Productions is a seasoned photographer and retoucher. Recently she teamed up with graphic design artist and stylist Heather Rae Franklin. Together, their creative possibilities are truly endless. The vision of the new JML Productions, Inc. is to help companies advertise with fresh, new looks and ideas. Their goal is to help companies find a concept for a product and to follow that concept through until a look that will not only sell, but will be well received is accomplished.

Jaime has photographed in a vast array of areas. She has done event photography, commercial advertising and most recently she held the position of In House Photographer for Quicken Loans. Not only has she acceled in her individual endeavors, but also as a valued member of a team. She has spent years cultivating her communication and leadership skills through constant networking and keeping her business diversified.

Heather Rae Franklin is not only a graphic artist, but also a hair and makeup stylist. She is bringing her own sense of artistry and professionalism to the table, in order to make JML Productions the best full service production company of itâ€™s kind. She has experience in everything ranging from logo creations to designs for advertisements.

With their combination of experience, passion and vision, Jaime and Heather Rae feel that they can offer a fresh approach to whatever production needs any company has.

JML Productions is now pleased to offer the services of Bre Kopson, a freelance and creative writer. A Rochester, MI native, Kopson brings her unique voice and writing talents to the table as well as fresh and unique perspectives on the world around us. She has a Journalism and Communications background and is excited to be a part of the JML Productions team.
