Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
My name is John Ruban and I work as a Marketing Manager at Trupp Global.
As a leading outsourcing company, Trupp Global Technologies focused on offering performance-driven and tailored Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) services to small and medium businesses across the world. Founded in 2017, Trupp Global strives to provide tailored outsourcing services to its clients that lead to the profitability of the companies. Our motto is to implement best industrial practices in providing a range of cost-efficient and high-quality BPO services, customer support services, data entry services, photo editing and back-office support services to the clients while achieving their business goals. With our unbiased and unparalleled outsourcing services, we have helped many businesses across the globe while overcoming their biggest challenges and realizing transformative outcomes. Read more:
