Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Since I was very, very young, I've had a love of comic book imagery. Whether in the world of High Art, or in the 'lowly' comic book, there is, I find, something very reassuring and delightfully immediate about clean and clear linework, and fields of flat colour. I studied Fine Art (Painting) at Camberwell School of Arts and Crafts in London, went on to work as a comic strip artist, did a stint in an animation studio and then became an Illustrator. I'm from Liverpool by the way, and live in Bristol, the UK versions in both cases.

Awards:

D and AD Award (Design and Art Direction) for Illustration.

The Creative Review Illustration Award. Commendation in The Association of Illustrators Annual Exhibition.
