Layla & Louis
Layla is a fairy who lives in the Whispering Forest. Fairies have always been known to guard their forests. They do not have many friends because they have the responsibility of keeping the forest healthy and protected. One day she came across a rabbit stuck in thorns. She used her magic to free him and changed the thorns into a flower. When she began to leave, the rabbit spoke to thank her. To Layla's surprise, he can speak but only to her. She learns that his name is Louis and he now follows her while she protects the forest.
