Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Kirsten Ulve is a New York City illustrator and designer. Her illustrations have graced the covers of magazines, books, newspapers, appeared in international ad campaigns, on the sides of buses, marquees on Broadway, children's clothing, animated tv commercials, watches, and in the form of toy figurines around the globe. She is also a master caricaturist and avid skier. Her illustrations have been recognized by the American Illustration Annual, and the 3 x 3 International Illustration Annual. She has been featured in Taschen's book series “100 Illustrators” about the 100 most important illustrators in the world, and has exhibited prints of her work in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, and Tokyo. Kirsten currently lives in Manhattan with her husband and two black cats, Romulus and Remus.
