Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I'm a freelance designer and web developer based in the UK, specialising in affordable design solutions for all. Although I work from England, my designs can be sent anywhere worldwide, and I am happy to work with any client. (Although all of my work will be produced in English)

I am both qualified and experienced in web design and development, and promise to work closely with you until you are happy with the end result.

Education

Diploma: Web Design

A-Level: English Language & Drama and Theatre Studies

GCSE: Mathematics A , English B/C , Art (Fine Art) B & 8 more

Experience

I have been working with HTML, XHTML and CSS for around six years and have recently begun working with PHP, MySQL and Javascript.

I am competent with content management systems such as WordPress, Habari & Fanupdate, and am able to create full themes for WordPress from scratch.

I have worked with cPanel and WHM for many years and am also able to work efficiently with Adobe Photoshop, Jasc/Corel Paint Shop Pro and Dreamweaver.
