Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My name is Leon P. Strapko. Dad was also named Leon so Mom put the "P" in to avoid confusion.

After I graduated from Parsons School of Design I got into direct marketing and was an art director for many years. That job taught me the importance of clear communication and delivering what you say you will when you say you will. Eventually I came to the realization that I'd rather be doing the art than doing the direction. Now I push pixels around to create digital art.

I live in New York with my darling daughter Julia.
