Awards and Accolades

From a technical point of view, we work with all available artistic media, including: pencil, watercolor, acrylics, oil, and digital and mixed techniques. Currently, 90% of our artistic output is based on Wacom tablet digital painting.

While maintaining both the highest standards and the most competitive prices, we at Maraz Design are especially noted for the speed with which orders are processed and the final product delivered. We are always open for any negotiations to meet your specific needs.

Our service includes :

- Concept development (model search and photography for reference materials).
- The option to approve sketches, prior to execution of final artwork.
- Copy of all illustrations burned to CD for client use.
- Delivery of Final Artwork via e-mail, FTP , other digital media
