Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

At first, tattooing was a hobby kind of thing for me. I didn't spend too much time in tattoo shops like "professional artists". I was a draft beer inspector working for the Heineken Company for way too long. But at last, what was in my blood began to win. Tattooing started as a hobby and created a tattoo for my friend as he wanted to create a tattoo of love spell and then I grew into a profession, not just a job. Lucky now I belong to that category of tattoo artist that really enjoys art of creativity.
