Awards and Accolades

The illustrators, designers and artists at Mascotize help merge business with creativity. Bringing their love of art and design to a commercial mindset means understanding the marketing environment – from today's web traffic markers to established print advertising standards. Whether you're seeking greater social media response or improved brand memorability, the team at Mascotize is ready to work for you.

Our professionals bring years of experience in design and conceptualization for print, broadcast and online advertising across a myriad of industries. They excel in helping brands discover a brighter, more effective way to reach their customers, and stay with them.

From the light and friendly to more serious options, effective mascot design can evoke the personality and voice of your brand, along with the quality of your products or services. Introduce your customer base to a more memorable, relatable side of your business.
