Norman Maslov

Artist Representation
879 Florida Street
San Francisco
CA 94110
United States

View the full portfolio at http://www.thecreativefinder.com/maslov

Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Norman Maslov, a native San Franciscan, is an Artist's Agent representing commercial photographers Nationally from his hometown by the Bay. He attended San Francisco State University studying Communications and Film, which led to a strange ten-year stint in the Recording Industry promoting and marketing artists for MCA and ABC Records. Mr. Maslov is a passionate music lover and collector and self-proclaimed Beatleologist having co-authored the very first travel guide of Beatles sites titled The Beatles' England. His two main influences are John Lennon and Woody Allen.
His Photography Agency, Maslov, Agent Internationale opened in 1986 and currently represents the intensely talented photographers: David Allan Brandt, Michele Clement, Cristiana Ceppas, Amy Herold, Deborah Jones, Bud Lammers, Harold Lee Miller, Sue Tallon, Stephen Austin Welch, David Zaitz and Skeleton Digital Art Studio.
Mr. Maslov also does personal and group consulting by appointment.

Previous Clientele
Please kindly get in touch for more information.

Awards and Accolades
Please kindly get in touch for more information.

Awards and Accolades
Please kindly get in touch for more information.

Norman Maslov

Artist Representation
879 Florida Street
San Francisco
CA 94110
United States

View the full portfolio at http://www.thecreativefinder.com/maslov

Norman Maslov

Artist Representation
879 Florida Street
San Francisco
CA 94110
United States

View the full portfolio at http://www.thecreativefinder.com/maslov

