About
Grew up in Los Angeles where I reside with my husband and three daughters. Creating multi-layered artworks is what I enjoy making, using a combination of acrylic paint, gouache and carefully selected papers, new and antique. The papers are cut into thin strips and other geometric and organic shapes, resulting in a complex universe of balance, texture, color and vibrant rhythms, emulating their coexistence in the urban landscape.
Education
Graduated in 1992 with a B.F.A. in Graphic Design from California State University, Northridge.
