Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I have worked as a freelance illustrator since 2009 with a wide variety of clients including Variety magazine, NPR and Universal Music creating narrative, editorial and advertising imagery to suit many purposes.

I work digitally to produce illustrations with a crisp, textural style and a sense of atmosphere. Producing everything from rough to final illustration in Photoshop affords me the flexibility to iterate quickly on a design. Though I employ modern methods of working I am inspired by Impressionist painting and enjoy finding the atmospheric side to everyday scenes.

When I'm not working I bake bread and listen to heavy metal.
