Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Mia Marie Overgaard has studied art, illustration and fashion design at The Royal Academy of Fine Arts, School of Design in Copenhagen, Denmark, from which she graduated in 2006. For the past few years, her freelance assignments have been quite varied reaching across commercial and fashion illustration to wallpaper design, packaging and prints for textiles and apparel.

Her work has been included in many compilations on illustration, and she has created quite a few editorials for various magazines and publishers.

She is used to working with agencies and clients world-wide and has been doing so for years. She sells and exhibits originals and prints to private collectors and has exhibited her work internationally.
