Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Born in a small Austrian village close to Graz on the countryside, Michael started taking his first pictures at the early age of 10. To get closer to his great dream of becoming a photographer he moved to Hamburg in 1995 – first assistant to photographers Stephan Abry, Martin Timmermann and Axl Jansen.

2000 - 2003 He studied photography at the prestigious Lette-Verein in Berlin, where he graduated with honors. As a freelance photographer with focus on landscape and people, Michael is based in Berlin since 2005. Winner of several awards, among these the town of Berlin Art scholarship, PDN Photo Award for landscape photography in 2008 and National Geographic US Award for "best landscape photography."

Michael's work is an expression of his close and deep relation with both nature and the human being.

Enjoy shooting with him ...
