Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Mike Grandmaison is a Canadian assignment and stock photographer specializing in architecture, agriculture, industry, nature and tourism. His extensive collection of premium quality stock images are available for corporate use, editorial publishing, and fine art decor and his photographs have been published worldwide. He travels extensively across Canada for various clients in this country and abroad. Mike has collaborated on six Canada Post stamp projects and has produced numerous corporate calendars.

Mike has published five coffee table books, including 'Mike Grandmaison's Prairie and Beyond' (just released); 'CANADA' in 2005 - a national bestseller with CBC broadcaster Shelagh Rogers, "The Canadian Rockies" (2007), "Georgian Bay" (2008) and "Muskoka" (2010). His photographs are also published in numerous other books.

He was recently honored by being selected as the featured artist in the prestigious 2011 Friesens Corporate Calendar which also won a 'PIA Award of Recognition' in The Premier Print Award Competition recognizing the highest quality printed pieces in various categories from around the world. He was also awarded second prize in the Northern Lights 2007 Awards Canada competition for Excellence in Travel Journalism. His photography was showcased in the May 2007 Travel issue of Canadian Geographic Magazine.

Mike's fine art photographs are featured in Winnipeg, Manitoba at "The Canadian Gallery" and may also be viewed online at www.the canadiangallery.com
