Gnomes brew with coriander.
Mischievous, yet ingenious.

Gnomes are known to guard underground treasures, which might explain why they've protected this pristine spring in the Ardennes Mountains for the past several centuries. They only use what they need to brew their precious ales, imbuing them with rare hops and spices. La Chouffe is bottle conditioned, unfiltered and unpasteurized—and uncommonly smooth with a spicy finish.
Clever. Very clever.
