Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Award winning live painter and illustrator both in London and Europe, Joanna Henly is barely in her 3rd year of working under the guise of Miss Led. In this time she has managed to amass a lucrative body of work with a high profile clientele.

She's created distinctively playful, flirtatious and diverse styles on many surfaces in a plethora of mediums. Painting live, a window for Selfridges and large-scale illustration work for Reebok and Diesel, to painting bespoke interior pieces for celebrities and Brompton Rd boutiques.

Working closely with a client to determine which style, and feel is most suited to the project, Joanna will implement either paint or drawing to then employ Photoshop or Illustrator to create the final product.
