Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Probably the most preferred property operations, real-estate accommodation company is Divine Property S.A. We focus on bettering property operations, luxury real-estate, consultation and sales so that you can improve the hospitality of your company. Developed in different fields of the hospitality market the company’s activities expand on the imaginative range of different sectors with the common purpose of introducing a genuine more intense concept that offers a complete holiday accommodation experience.

We are engaged more in refining the quality as opposed to quantity to our number of properties. We have produced our properties in the Greek islands and our objective is to grow to capitals like London and Athens. An excellent benefit we offer to property holders is that we release them from their hard tasks. Divine Property offers them with secure and positive stream of income which means that property holders won't have to think about rental or property managing. Each of the properties picked out by our Divine group is treated as if it is one of our very own property, with great attention and dignity to the owner of course. We choose those properties for their originality, unique qualities and placement.

Divine Property began and established with an inspiring push of enhancing the experience of hospitality to an international demanding clientele and enhancing the unequalled services supplied by our group to match the exclusive and individualized likes and anticipations of each guest. Driven by good love and momentum our Divine staff has produced a complete experience with a simple priority to the clients’ customized needs offering the widest and fullest selection of services and facilities of the highest quality.

Our group is at the guests’ grasp 24/7 during their stay offering full assistance and concierge services, working tirelessly on realizing a high-class encounter on each part of the guests’ stay giving tips and bookings to the most favored and vibrant restaurants, beaches, bars and night clubs plus the island’s secret places. We also give our guests at Mykonos some of our unique services and attention at the island's greatest places duo to our long-term cooperation with the most visited places of the island.
