ULTRA | Eco-conscious High Fashion by the We Are ULTRA Collective.

“Ultra merges the ultimate duo: sustainability and style. The result is cutting-edge fashion with an eye toward innovative design.” – Emma Grady, Treehugger

ULTRA, designed and made to unite sustainability with leading fashion – to be the choice with a good looking voice for a wider world of people.

Every piece made, the way it falls, holds and folds – talks about an appreciation for style. But unbeknownst to the onlooker, it also boasts an appreciation of sustainability.

Soy and bamboo fibres, recycled PET, salmon skin leather and biodegradable tencel mix with other innovative fabrics under ethical production standards to make ULTRA.
