Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
I'm an artist, illustrator, and graphic designer based in Toronto, Canada.

I've been drawing, painting, and doing creative projects all my life. Until recently I was on the road to becoming an academic but changed course. Now I have a certificate in graphic design for print and web and do freelance art and graphic design.

I am a versatile artist able to creating stunning visuals in a number of styles and mediums from cartoon to realistic. I am also great at photoshop and have layout and web skills too.

I specialize in animal and fantasy art drawing but am excited to be part of any project that requires some imagination, creative thinking, or a touch of the fantastic.
