Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Hello, I'm Nick Parisse and I live and work in New York City. I hold a BFA in Photography and Digital Imaging from the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC. I consider myself primarily a portrait artist however I also photograph product and places. I have the privilege of working with some of the best creative directors and retouchers in the business. If you're interested in collaborating on future projects please email me, nickparisse@gmail.com. I look forward to creating more beautiful and compelling work.

Objective
To help create original and compelling stories through visual interpretation.

Experience
Nick Parisse Photography, New York, NY
Photographer, 2006-Present
As a freelance photographer I travel the world creating original work for various editorial publications. I oversee multiple pre-production obstacles and coordination while formulating and maintaining specific budgets. My clients include: Playboy Magazine, Hue Magazine, Woman?s Wear Daily and Adobe.

Net-A-Porter, New York, NY
Photographer, September, 2010-March 2012
Responsible for all product photography in the U.S. studio. I Routinely acted as a liaison between managers, photographers, stylists and retouchers to ensure flawless and accurate results through out the photographic process. The resulting images contributed to thousands of weekly on-line sales (all time high for the company).
