Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Smart Design & Creative Results

Design Womb is the independent San Francisco-based design studio of Nicole LaFave. Our claim to fame is accessibility and reliability. We work alongside our clients to deliver smart results that inspire and evoke personality. Creative brand identities, graphic and web design solutions.

Design is Necessary

We're good at bridging gaps. Correction: really good at it. For those of you that are intimidated by technology or creative, we're your stand-in translator and researcher. We pull from our own experiences and understand that tackling something from the ground up can be a very overwhelming process. We are here to step-in, simplify and project manage. We'll help you connect the dots to realize ideas into a good-looking successful reality.
