Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Hi, I am Nova Martin, working as a content writer at Rananjay Exports for the last four years. Our firm has been dealing in the manufacturing and wholesale gemstone jewlery including Opal jewelry and 150 plus other varieties of gemstones. I have an interest in reading and writing about gemstones. I collect information from authentic sources after cross-checking all the facts and put them in my blogs. I always try to elaborate briefly about the gemstones in my articles on the healing properties, ways of using crystals, and many more. I hope my research and information definitely would help you at the time of selling it to your customers.
