Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
My name is Bright Ntakky Arinaitwe, a Ugandan by birth, aged 30 years, a graduate of Art and Design at Kyambogo University, Kampala Uganda.

I am a Creative Director at BETA Inspirations, an Art and Design company dealing mainly in mural illustrations and industrial graphic designs and writer/ illustrator at World of Inspiration.

I am an excellent Fine artist, graphic designer, creative writer and poet in spirited pursuit of knowledge and skills for global impact.

I add Heart to my Art, value honesty, directed ambition and dedication to excellence. I have a great attitude and willingness to step out of my way to make others better than I found them.

I have so far published two books; “7:77 …theirs was a race against time.” A novel on the race of life And “Contending for the Mastery” a motivational book on Attitude, from birth to death and now working on a Poetry collection titled ‘My Country’s Call’

I won ‘HIT Best Fine Artist of the year award 2015” and was voted Author of the month at FEMRITE for the book 777

I run a blog called Contending for the mastery.

I hold an annual show ca¬lled BEYOND ART at National Theatre. My dream is to see it grow into an international platform where young people can come together and explore while they express their God given talents in an atmosphere of exclusive inspiration.
