Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Our Vision:
Primarily focused on the European and Middle Eastern market, the Obai and Hill mission is to provide its clients with creative and innovative designs and strategic solutions that will give them the needed competitive edge in the current market place.

We aim to bring young innovative designers into a new light and bridge the gap between the unestablished younger designer and the client, creating a business for the Middle Eastern consumer and the breadth of young talent in Europe. We want to be approachable, friendly and innovative.

Our Mission:
Agency Obai and Hill aims to become the pioneer of providing creative consulting services and solutions in the Middle East and Europe through their knowledge, and expertise, providing a competitive edge to clients with their innovative and high quality products.

The agency is a network of young emerging creatives in the graphic design, illustration, animation, photography, fashion styling & PR fields based in the UK. With the directors' knowledge and contacts of clients in the consumer brand, financial and corporate industries in the Middle East and the creativity and innovation of our pool of talent.

We aim to provide work for the young playful designers we meet and work with on a daily basis and get them involved with innovative projects primarily with our clients everywhere.
