Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Craig Fleming is an actor, director, teacher, and writer. He received his MFA in Acting from CSULB, where he was named Outstanding Graduate for the College of the Arts. Theatre background includes acting and directing throughout Southern California. At South Coast Repertory, he served as Education Director and taught acting for fifteen years. In 1988 Craig joined Walt Disney Imagineering, moved to Paris, and directed the nomenclature and scripting effort for the creation of Disneyland Paris. Before becoming an Imagineer he wrote for Teddy Ruxpin and other talking toys. He has abandoned theme parks and talking toys to search for something real.
