Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Rawlyn Farley's stylishly whimsical artwork has been described as "cute illustrations for cute people". Much of her inspiration comes from fashion, pop culture, and hanging out with her cats too much. Rawlyn spent the last 7 years in Florida, after graduating in 2004 with a B.F.A. in Illustration from the Ringling School of Art & Design. She spent her first 3 years after graduation working as the Sr. Graphic Artist for a junior's apparel line before relocating to NYC. She continues designing and illustrating for various junior's lines as well as working on editorial projects.
