Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Ricardo Fumanal was born in Spain (1984). He moved to London after cultivating his youthful spirit in Barcelona and Madrid. Ricardo's interests range from photography for fashion and advertising to the Fine Arts. Thus, his main professional activity as an illustrator draws from a broad array of techniques and languages. His current artistic outlook is expanding from the realm of manual drawing (marker, pencil and ink on paper) into moving images. He has worked for clients as Lou Dalton, Pull& Bear, Mango or Barcelona City Council; and magazines such as Hercules, Dazed&Confused, Wallpaper, Nylon Guys, Madame Figaro, German Glamour, Metal, Apartamento, Marie Claire and many covers for literary Spanish review Leer.
