Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

RoseMarie is a professional fine artist, illustrator, photographer and graphic designer. Her paintings in watercolour, oil or acrylic are appreciated for their strong compositions, knowledgeable use of colour, light and affinity with her chosen subject. A painter who expresses her Canadian heritage and concern for Canada's unique and fragile ecology through her paintings of landscape, people, flora and fauna; RoseMarie is a tireless wilderness traveler. She works in her studio in Fenelon Falls, Ontario where she has easy access to the wilderness of the Canadian Shield country she loves to explore, paint and photograph. This is why she was so delighted when approached to illustrate 'The Canadian Shield Alphabet'. Recently published by Your Nickel's Worth Publishing 'The Canadian Shield Alphabet' is a children's book that highlights the Canadian Shield its flora and fauna as well as its cultural heritage.

RoseMarie has illustrated many children's toys, games and pastimes for numerous multi-national corporations.
