Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

SAINTCHiC is inspired by aesthetics cultivated from techniques explored from every corner of the globe.

They reference the designer as "the Saint" because the methods of design are undiluted. Research and ingenuity influence every aspect of each garment.

Their design sensibility is sharpened by superior institutions: Fashion Institute of Technology and Parsons School of Design in New York and Paris, and they have been critiqued and mentored by some of fashion's greatest influences: Tim Gunn, Tracy Reese and Sean "P-Diddy" Combs.

Their contracted and ghost designer resume is long with MTV and Pastry at the top of the list.

The New York Times loves their work, and so do top fashion industry trend sites and publications like Womens Wear Daily and Stylesight.

The world is SAINTCHiC's oyster and we invite you to indulge in progressive collections that are designed to compliment your personal style.

Search for them on the web at youtube, polyvore, twitter, facebook and tumblr, - our name is always SAINTCHiC.

STYLE IS NOT JUST ABOUT FORM AND SUBSTANCE. IT'S ALSO ABOUT THE LUXURIOUS DELIBERATION OF INTELLIGENCE IN THE FACE OF BOUNDARIES -
