Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Born and raised in Virginia, Sandra graduated from the Art Institute of Philadelphia with one photo class and a degree in Visual Communications.

Surrounded by the open space of her childhood to the confined places of adulthood. Sandra has a great appreciation for nature as well as the lack of in this geographical landscape we call home.

Green thinks of herself as the lazy painter; forming compositions, selecting hues in a single moment caught in time. Finding beauty within the mundane she is the pedestrian giving voice to the voiceless.
Borrowing from light and shadow she gives the inanimate a story to tell.

Aware of the uncertainties of life she has made traveling her personal journey and with the globe as her studio, Photography her passion.

Sandra lives and works in Los Angeles.
