Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Sara Rubinstein's compelling photographs appear in publications ranging from national advertisements and magazines to smaller niche-based publications. Her images have earned her awards from Advertising Photographers of America to the State Fair in her home state of Minnesota. Whether photographing a national advertising campaign or editorial assignment, Sara's images are as beautiful as they are honest. Her devotion to solid production, client relations and compelling imagery are unwavering. The results are consistently satisfying: spectacular imagery, a well-managed shoot and meticulous attention to detail. Sara is available for assignments locally and internationally.
