Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Peter is a specialist within the world of commercial photography, shooting mainly product with a emphasis on liquids. He has a well earned reputation for being enthusiastic, a great problem solver, and passionate about producing great images. With a full-time retoucher on staff, and using only the finest cameras & equipment available, Peter has developed a clean, modern sense of vision unique in the industry. This combination is what allows Peter to create exceptionally detailed, dynamic and graphic images - the hallmark of his style. He has won several international awards for his editorial, personal and advertising work, most recently a PDN and Communication Arts awards for advertising. Peter has studio and production facilities in NYC, Toronto, and Chicago.
